

Reach The Peak Nordic Mountain Mt. Morris, Wisconsin October 16, 2010

Who needs "flat and fast"? There are plenty of those out there. This race aims to be something different, a yardstick to measure your hill skills by! Both 5K and 15K courses begin at Nordic Mountain Ski Resort in picturesque Mt. Morris and then wind through woods and around lakes, until the final challenge to reach the peak of Mt. Morris itself. If reaching the peak doesn't take your breath away, the amazing view at the top most certainly will.

Don't miss the opportunity to run in a race that is destined to become one of the Midwest's premier running events.

The story goes that the town of Mt. Morris was named in the late 1800's after two men agreed to decide the town's name with a footrace to the top of the hill, the winner was a man named 'Morris.' In honor of the fastest male and female of the 15K race, the town of Mt. Morris will be renamed after them... for the day! Can you picture your name on that sign...

Are you ready to accept the challenge?
